

About Our Chef

Chef Dotti is a Manchester, CT native and spent many years in the insurance industry before turning full-time to her passion for cooking.

Chef Dotti's culinary foundation was laid in her family kitchen and added onto at the Connecticut Culinary Institute where she graduated as a Pastry Chef. Her retail experience comes from local bakeries and supermarkets.

In addition to owning and operating Brown Sugar Catering, LLC, Chef Dotti provides private cooking lessons in your home and in her commercial kitchen, speaks to local culinary high school students and does volunteer work for a variety of non-profit organizations. She serves on the Board of Directors of the Manchester Chamber of Commerce and My Sister's Place (a local non-profit agency).

Brown Sugar CATERING, LLC

Brown Sugar Catering, LLC is a full-service catering company. We offer a full menu of appetizers, entrees and other meal selections which can be downloaded from our website at www.brownsugarcatering.net. We prepare foods the way they were meant to be...which means that all food is prepared specifically for you and your event.

Brown Sugar Catering, LLC caters large and small events and also provides in-home meals. All menu items are made from scratch, using only the finest and freshest ingredients available. Chef Dotti believes in supporting the local economy and uses many local vendors and products in her offerings. Vegetarian, low-calorie or other restricted diets can be accommodated with a variety of meal selections and desserts. We maintain a bakery and catering liquor license and are fully insured. Brown Sugar Catering, LLC can provide wait staff, insured bartenders and works with other vendors to provide tents, china, silverware and linens, serving utensils and trays. Brown Sugar Catering has the capacity to make all the arrangements for your event. Remember, our goal is for you to be a guest at your event.

Custom Gift Baskets, Cookie Trays & Individually Prepared Meals

Custom gift baskets are available for any occasion. Our baskets are filled with homemade goodies and are the answer to the age old question of what to give that special person.

Freshly made cookies are available and can be prepared on short notice. What better way to impress your client or surprise a loved one with warm cookies from the oven.

Individually prepared meals are packaged for immediate consumption or can be frozen. Reheating instructions are included. A recent testimonial from a client said, "Thanks for the great pre-cooked meal delivery. They were absolutely delicious and were a snap to reheat. With the arrival of our second child it was such a big help to not have to worry about what to cook. The portions were generous."
